Ghost King

Betrayal strikes with serpent's breath
A poisoned vow that tastes of death
Defeat still gnaws on marrowed bones
While Ghost Kings rise to claim their thrones

What shatters them won't bring me down
Through ruin's ash we'll forge our crown

Seal the book of haunted years
Raise the dead with shattered tears
Ash to ember, flames will follow
Crown today, you'll rule tomorrow

Plague runs deep through pallid flesh
Shame devours what was fresh
Trust lies torn in crimson dirt
Ghost Kings baptize the world in hurt

What shatters them won't bring me down
Through ruin's ash we'll forge our crown

Seal the book of haunted years
Raise the dead with shattered tears
Ash to ember, flames will follow
Crown today, you'll rule tomorrow

When weakness seeps through mortal veins
Recall the hand that binds the chains (chains, chains)

Seal the book of haunted years
Every ghost now bends in fear
Ash to ember, night will follow
Crown today, destroy tomorrow
Every grave demands its king
Page turner… let the darkness sing
