Fearless Heart

Heaven's calling in those eyes
Truth incarnate in disguise
Shadows sought to steal the ode
Now hearts share the seeds once sowed

Angels weep for what unfolds
(Sacred suffering, soon set free)

Fearless heart bleeds crimson wine
Death can't silence truth divine
Darkness stole breath, but freed the soul
Hearts carry on the sacred goal
Fearless heart soars through the sky
That bright flame will never die

Sacred was the choice to talk
Instead of building walls of rock
"Silence breeds the violent heart"
Words now carved in history's chart

Angels weep for what unfolds
(Sacred suffering, soon set free)

Fearless heart bleeds crimson wine
Death can't silence truth divine
Darkness stole breath, but freed the soul
Hearts carry on the sacred goal
Fearless heart soars through the sky
That bright flame will never die

"Courage for my faith," whispered strong
Words that death will never know
〔Solo with double drum blast beats〕

Fearless hearts bleed crimson wine
Death can't silence truth divine
Let these scars become the crown
Our hearts will carry the sacred vow
Fearless hearts that dare to bleed
Birth the hope this world will heed (this world will heed)

"Prove me wrong"
