Ghost of Ariel

They wear wildness like a funeral veil
Decent by day, secrets prevail
Made me believe their hearts were mine
Vanished like smoke, I'm not alright

Haunted by their sweet hollow touch
They crown kings from the hearts they crushed

Ghost of Ariel, dancing pain (dancing pain)
Cursing touch that haunts today
Ghost of Ariel, phantom bride (my phantom bride)
Why do I hunger for your lies?

She taught me pain could be divine
Made suffering communion wine
The saint who fled became my prayer
A holy curse beyond repair

Haunted by their sweet hollow touch
They crown kings from the hearts they crushed

Ghost of Ariel, bleeding pain (bleeding pain)
Cursing touch that haunts today
Ghost of Ariel, phantom bride (my phantom bride)
Why do I crave what should be denied?

In the cathedral of my scars (scars… scars)
I light candles to fallen stars (stars… stars)

Ghosts of Ariel, and all her names (all her names)
Different faces, same dark games
Ghosts of Ariel, my graveyard brides (graveyard brides)
Why miss the dark that should have died?

Ghost of Ariel… my beautiful death
Yes, I'd do it all again… (I'd do it again)
