Resurrection Kiss

Tears that never hit the floor
Locked and bolted every door
Heart on mute, a flatline hum
Dressed my skin to fit the tomb
(Dressed to fit the tomb)

Then you came with burning hands
Spoke in tongues I understand

Hearts that feel will bleed to breathe
(Bleed to breathe)
Feel the thorns hiding beneath the leaves
You woke the ghost inside this grave
Pay in scars, feel the wicked flame
Stitched wings escaped the coffin’s hold
Her warmth unchained this zombie’s soul

Was numb, was complete
A perfect corpse with no heartbeat
Exorcist lips against the cold
Silently pulled me from the fold
(Screaming from the fold)

Who is left when feeling comes
What the hell have I become?

Hearts that feel will bleed to breathe
(Bleed to breathe)
Feel the thorns hiding beneath the leaves
You woke the ghost inside this grave
Pay in scars, feel the wicked flame
Stitched wings escaped the coffin’s hold
Her warmth unchained this zombie’s soul

Keep me waking

Keep me aching
Don’t let me
Go back to sleep

Wake the dead and let them breathe
(Let them breathe)
Feel the thorns hiding beneath the leaves
You kissed the ghost inside this grave
Resurrection’s all you gave
Stitched wings rising, angels ache
Burn the lies with love’s wicked pain
(Love’s dark and wicked pain)

Keep me awake...
Resurrection kiss...
Said my name...
(Don’t let me go back to sleep)
